

LAU-RHEA WARD, ST. SIMONS ISLAND, GA.

GREETINGS FROM
ST. SIMONS ISLAND, GEORGIA

St. Simons Island is one of the largest of Georgia's famous "Golden Isles." Gucle Indians called the Island Asao. Spain established the first mission on St. Simons in 1568, and priests of the Jesuit Order, serving this mission, called it San Simon. The anglicized version of the name of the old mission is the name the Island bears today.
